

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

RPM – Retail Project Managers, Inc. and TMI – Team Management Inc.
Announce Merger.....

RPM (Retail Project Managers, Inc.) and TMI (Team Management, Inc.) announced that the two companies will merge operations, effective August 1, 2005.

The merger will launch a new company with unparalleled technology and professional expertise in serving the retail store development industry. According to RPM CEO Bill Davis, “TMI’s operational excellence will add to RPM’s founding principles of speed, technology, and process improvement to enhance the overall operating effectiveness of RPM.” TMI CEO Chuck Belding adds, “TMI and RPM bring the extremes of customer service and technology to the same table in the retail, financial, and automotive marketplaces.

The combined company will offer a highly efficient, speed oriented system for opening new stores, remodeling existing stores, and fixture and display installations, guided with the use of technology, for retailers throughout the USA, Canada and Mexico.

Davis notes that after the acquisition of TMI, TMI’s headquarters in Columbus, Ohio will serve as RPM’s operational center.

RPM is a one-source, rapid deployment provider of logistics, warehousing, consolidations, rollouts, installations, merchandising, surveying, and drafting, utilizes interactive web-based project management and inventory programs, demonstrates innovative solutions and methodology, and is headquartered in Chicago / Schaumburg, Illinois.
